Schuylkill House is well worth seeing. Octagonal brick built on 1805. All Church with curved window tops. High stone foundation supports wood piazza. Floors of pine, stained walnut. Splay windows. Stone columns handsomely finished in oil. Each column supported by cast iron plates with stone pedestals in cellar. Cast iron plates like a large diamond.

Two Venetian Houses were set to the Schuylkill Water Works. The oldest is brick with white trimmings. The other 1810 is white with green blinds. In Gerret above is their trunk. Stone under Italian Carpet-ing — Coffee mill.
